

5k Rules for Red & Blue Run

All participants will be issued a Bib Number that will be worn on the front of their body and visible at all times.

Headphones are discouraged. If headphones are to be worn, only one earbud may be used.

Participants will adhere to the prescribed course and will follow a lead vehicle or lead cyclist. Any participant found not following the course will be disqualified.

Participants will follow instructions of course staff and/or police on site, especially at intersections and times where vehicles may be present.

The race begins promptly at 8:00 am.

Winner categories are First through Third Male and First Through Third Female. There are no age categories.

Winners are based on actual finish placement. Net times will not be used for overall placing.
